"POWDER PUFF"

Larry Kraut and Coach Nelson show mixed emotions during the game.

The Juniors and Sophomores overtook the Seniors and Freshman in this year's Powder Puff game. The competition was stiff and the score showed it. The winning girls squeezed by their opponents with a 6-0 victory. Coaches for the teams were Kyle Nelson and Larry Kraut for the Juniors and Sophomores and Art Winder and Buddy Wilkinson for the Seniors and Freshman.

“CHRISTMAS WEEK”

The talented Senior Choir sings carols for the student body

Christmas week 1980 was very fun and exciting this year. The traditional activities included, decorating the school windows by the Seniors, a movie for the student body, a hall decorating contest between the upper and lower halls, and a party at the end of the week. Here the Sophomores entertained with a skit and the Juniors provided refreshments.

The last part of May was a time for rollerskating. Students went home with many bruises, but felt no reflection; the fun times were worth it.

An unusual award is presented by Andy Dunnam

On April 23, 1981, the Juniors honored the Seniors with the traditional banquet. This special occasion was a time for students to get together and reflect on memories of high school days shared.

After a delicious dinner of roast turkey, Junior class President Kevin Sandquist and Vice President Coleen Swanson read the Senior prophecies. Next, Senior class president Jill Carlson and Jennifer Hann read the Senior wills. Shane Nilsson and Bill Dugger sang solos, and the "Rookies" provided musical entertainment.

Andy Dunnam gave out this year's special awards. Kristi Turner received a leash (for the teachers). Kim Hokanson became the "athletic supporter" of the year. Gail Swanson now owns a muzzle, and Mike Brocke claimed the title F.S.M.A. (Future Smart Mouths of America). Also, a flashlight seemed fitting for Bob Stratton, Jeff Bingman, and Mel Denny (attics can be dark!). Banquet '81 was a night to be remembered.

PROM 1981

An important event of the year is the spring Prom, put on by the junior class. This year's Prom was held April 25 at the Best Western in Moscow. The theme was "The Best of Times" with music played by Mistress. The night was a big success and is sure to be remembered.

Although the going's tough, Mike strives on

As soon as spring break is over, members of THS girls' and boys' track teams don their sweats and begin working out in earnest. When track meets begin, each individual has reached his or her peak of physical and mental perfection and is ready to face the challenge of a rigorous schedule. Occasional casualties, shin splints, or sore muscles, often the order of the day, become "part of the game" - a game with rewards for all participants who give it their best shot. Teammates qualifying for state: SENIORS Shane Nilsson and Elise Cox; JUNIORS Kevin Rauch, Chris Dammareil, Andy Dunnam and Tom Umbarger; and SOPHOMORE Julie Homan.

1981 EDITORS

Selling ads, photography work, writing copy, and meeting deadlines are just a part of the responsibilities of being Trojan Torch editors. Under a cloak of secrecy, into long hours of the night, living on sunflower seeds and pop, we tried to make an annual that was unique and special. We would like to give a special thanks to our advisors Cliff Swanson and Lon Bangs. We couldn't have done it without them.
